In the name of God, Amen;

I, Epsie Byrd (Mrs. W. T. Byrd) of said state and county, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make declare and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking and annulling all wills heretofore made by me, together with any codicils to the same at any time heretofore made by me.

Item 1- I desire and direct that my body be buried in a decent and Christian like manner, suitable to my circumstances and my condition in life.

Item 2- I desire and direct that all of my just debts, should I owe any debts at the time of my death, be paid with as little delay as possible.

Item 3- I give, bequest, and devise to my daughter Inez Byrd Muery, all the land with all improvements thereon, of which I may die possessed, also all the property of every description, real, personal, and choses in action, of which I may die seized and possessed.

Item 4- I hereby constitute and appoint my daughter, Inez Byrd Muery executrix of this my last will and testament, and I expressly confer on her the power, as such to administer my estate, excusing her from giving bond, or making any returns to the ordinary or other court either annual or otherwise, together with the power to sell my property as she may see fit without any order from the court first had, either at private or public sale, I also relieve her from making any inventory of my estate.
