State of Georgia In the name of God Amen, I Abraham Pickens County 3rd Prov. of said State and County Knowing the uncertainty of life deem it both right and proper as respects my family and myself, that I should make a disposition of the property with which a kind Providence has blessed me, do therefore make this my last Will and Testament hereby revoking and annulling all other heretofore made by me,

Item 1st I desire that my body be buried at Refuge Church suitable to my circumstances and conditions in life in a decent Christian like manner, my soul I trust will return to God who gave it.

Item 2nd I desire and direct, that my Executrix and Executor hereinafter mentioned named and appointed, pay all my just debts without any unnecessary delay.

Item 3rd I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Phoebe Prov. with whom I have lived and lived, all my real estate, to wit: Lots of Land Number One hundred and sixty and One hundred and sixty one, and parts of lots numbers One hundred and sixty four and One hundred and sixty five, all lying and being in the Thirteenth District and Second Section of Pickens County State of Georgia, and all my personal property of every description money, notes and accounts, that I may be seized and possessed, except such as may be necessary to pay my just debts and pay taxes from year to year, if necessary during her natural life, nothing in this item to be so construed as to prevent my wife from using or trading any of the personal property for any comfort necessary for her, or to prevent the Executrix and Executor from selling either real estate or personal property to pay my just debts and taxes during my wife's life-time.

Item 4th I desire and direct that all my real estate mentioned in the foregoing third item of this will that is not disposed of as directed in said item, after the death of my wife be equally divided between my seven sons Edward Crow, Henry H. Crow, McKinney Crow, John H. Crow, James Crow, Thomas A. Crow, and Ezekiel Crow, said land to be run off in seven parts and valued and then drawn by lottery if it cannot be satisfactorily arranged without said lottery either or all of my sons having the right to transfer their interest to take effect at the death of my wife and if either or any of my sons should die before my wife then their interest to vest in their children if there be no children, their interest to vest in the other brothers.

Item 5th I desire and direct, that all the personal property at my wifes death be equally divided between my daughters Anna Crow Susan Hillbauts wife of Bird Hillbauts, Lucrea Rider wife of C.B. Rider, Malinda Carney wife of William Carney, Dranna Little wife of Henry Little, Elisabeth Piugan wife of Jephtha Piugan, and my two grand-daughters and one grandson William E. Phocba, and Nancy McLindsey, Children of Serena Lindsey one equal share with each of my daughters.

Item 6th I desire and direct that my Executrix and Executor give to my grand-daughter Sarah J. Crow, daughter of my son William Crow, deceased, to the value of ten dollars in household and kitchen when she marries or gets a house of her own.

Item 7th I desire and direct that there shall be no appraisement of my estate required of my Executrix and Executor and further that no annual return ^{shall} be required of them of my estate and if it should become necessary to make any sales of property as mentioned in item 3rd of this will, that they make the same without an order from the Ordinary and at private sale.

Item 8th I do hereby constitute and appoint my wife Phoebe Crow and William Tate Executrix and Executor of this my last will and testament. This the 23rd day of June 1880.
