It appearing to the Court on the 13th day of December 1873 that the last will and testament of Rankin Webster of said County deceased was proven in due form by one of the witnesses in common form and the said S. M. McByrd executor named in said will having petitioned for the admitting said will to record. It is therefore ordered that said will be recorded as the last will and testament of Rankin Webster deceased and that should S. M. McByrd qualifying as such Executor either as such do issue to him in terms of the law. J. P. Brewer Ordinary Georgia S. M. McByrd Do solemnly swear that this writing contains the true last will and testament of Rankin Webster deceased as far as I know or believe and that I will well and truly execute the same by paying first the debts and then the legacies contained in said will as far as his goods and estate will thereunto come and the law charge me and that I will make a just and true inventory of all and singular the goods and chattels rights and credits of said deceased and a just return thereof when thereunto required. So help me God.
