

Edmund Blount's Will

In the name of god Amen March 28th 1894 Edmund Blount of Putnam County being weak in body but of sound mind hereby do to good ends make this my last will and testament in language following. To wit I desire to have my land in Columbia County sold by my Executors hereafter named to the best advantage and for them to pay all my just debts with that sum the sum of 1/3rd of the present year and if they should think best for the family to sell a negro girl called Delphia and part of the stock and after my debts are all paid to lay out the balance of that money to the best advantage for the family and dispose of the balance of my property as I may mention

- 1 I give my daughter Ann C. Blair ten dollars
- 2 I lend my wife Mary Blount during her natural life the plantation I now live on I reserve the share and kitchen furniture and plantation entirely and the stock thereon, I also lend her all my clothing I desire my children that are with as poor single to be raised and supported on the property of the Estate, and when either of them should marry or leave home to let them have a negro and have it appraised as a part of their dividend or three hundred Dollars in money, which ever she thinks most proper to do and when my sons, Thomas E. Blount and Peter Blount are grown to give them a horse worth one hundred Dollars to each of them. After the decease of my wife Mary Blount I wish the property to be divided in the following manner To wit My son, Henry M. S. Blount, Thomas E. Blount, and Peter Blount to have fourteen hundred Dollars each My Daughters, Eliza E. Blount & Mary Ann Louise Blount to have fifteen hundred Dollars each - Should the Estate not be sufficient to pay the legates each shall lose in proportion - Should there be any more property after they have received the dividend allotted to each of them, I wish my daughter Ann C. Blair to have an equal share of the balance of my property I constitute and appoint my wife Mary Blount and my son Henry M. S. Blount my Executors in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day & year above written
