

The last will & Testament of Mathew Dumas received a just proportion of said property & hereby appoint my sons Joseph & Benjamin Dumas the executors of this my last will

At 13 on the first page the following words are interlined (viz)
"provided also that she remains in an unmarried state"
"After the word then and on this page the word married." In witness of the above I have hereunto set my name & seal this twenty second day of October in the year eight hundred and twenty two
In presence of
Robert Jenkins
James Hunt
Peter Menden
Mathew Dumas

Georgia } Proven in open court by Robert Jenkins & James Putnam County } Hunt this 13th day of January 1823 Subscribing Witnesses Thos Bates C, C, D (412)

Georgia } Know all men by these presents that I Putnam County } Mathew Dumas of the State & County aforesaid being weak in body but sound in mind and memory do make and ordain this my last will & testament in the name of God Amun In the following manner (Viz) I give and bequeath unto my beloved Daughter Marthy Mary Helen Marthy Hunt and the lawful heirs of her body one tract of land lying in the second district of Early County distinguished by the file of said district by lot number three hundred and forty two which parcel of land was drawn by William A. Hargraves Also all my goods and chattels rights of and claims I bequeath unto my said Daughter Marthy except my debts which I bequeath unto my beloved daughter Marthy her heirs which is the balance of her proportionable part of my estate let it be understood that it is my desire the aforesaid lot of land should not be sold until the youngest heir of the said Marthy be come of lawful age and then the same to be equally distributed among the said Marthy and her heirs I do desire the said Marthy if she thinks proper to go and settle and improve the aforesaid land but not to transfer or lease the same in any manner whatever and I do constitute, nominate and appoint William A. Hargraves my executor in testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affix my seal on the fourth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight

The last will & testament of Charles Brown died Signed in the presence of Elizabetta his Wm. H. Henthorn and Charles Samuel Dickey marks

Georgia
 Putnam County Ordn as to the personal property by the oath of Samuel Dickey Subscribing Witness in open Court this 3rd day of March 1823

Thos B. Poy G. C.

Georgia
 Putnam County In the name of God Amen
S. John Wamilton of the County and State aforesaid being in a weak and debilitated state of body, but of a sound mind and memory, blessed be almighty God for the same do make & ordain this my last will and testament in manner and form following (to wit) First it is my will and desire that all my property both real & personal be equally divided between my beloved wife Polly Poy and my daughter Marta Elizabeth Poy But if the child with which my wife is now pregnant should be born alive and live it is to have an equal share with its mother and sister Marta. The division to take place whenever my executors may think best - I will that Polly be sole executrix. I wish my wife to change her lot of negroes if she chooses by paying the difference if there should be a difference & it may some time after my decease before any division takes place it is my will that my executors conduct the business and best to promote the interest of the legatus. After a division has taken place it is my will if Charles Wamilton live & consent that he should act as Guardian for my child or children as the case may be. Last I appoint as my executors my beloved wife Polly Poy and my friend Brian Blount and Charles Wamilton in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 2nd day of December 1822

John W. Poy (Seal)

James Allen
J. A. Blount
Brian Blount