

6 The Last Will & Testament of John W. Posey Dec'd
 Georgia 3 Proven in open court as far as the person Putnam County, at properly by James Allen subscribing witness to the same, 5th March 1823 Thos B Rice Secy

The last Will and Testament of Stephen W. Harris dec'd.

In the name of god Amen, I Stephen W. Harris being weak of body but of sound mind and memory do make and ordain this my last will and testament. I do recommend my soul to god and I give unto my beloved wife my house and lot in the town of Eatonton, and all my linen and household furniture my Carriage Phorses and the three negroes, the house and lot three negroes to be held during her life and widowhood and at the happening of either event to be equally divided among my wife and my surviving three children and the heirs of those who may die 3^d I give the balance of my property both real and personal to be equally divided among my wife and children to them and their heirs forever.
 It is my wish and desire that my Alabama property should be sold by my Executors in March annually for Cash or Credit as they may deem best. It is further my wish my negroes except what I have given to my wife should be sold out by my Executors as they may deem best to the best ultimate benefit of the estate without regard to the highest price. Lastly I do hereby appoint my wife executrix and my friends Eli P. Foster, Reuben Jones, William Williams my Executors but if my wife should marry again I wish her Executorship to cease, and the other Executors or their survivors to continue, and I further appoint my wife Testamentary Guardian to my daughter and my friends Eli P.
 Foster Reuben Jones Testamentary Guardians to my Sons.
 Signed sealed this fourteenth day of September 1822

In presence of John S. Smith
 Eby Hudson
 Jos. Anderson
 Patsie H. Holt

Stephen W. Harris

Georgia 3 The within will was duly proven in open court Putnam County by John S. Smith and John Hudson subscribing witnesses to the same this 11th day of November 1822

Colman, P. & Co Secy