

to return them to the Executors.
April 30. E

Executor's Sales.

ON WEDNESDAY the 14th May, 1817, in front of the Post-Office, Augusta, will commence the Sale of all the Personal Property of the Estate of the Rev'd. Doctor JOHN R. THOMPSON, deceased, —consisting of a variety of—

Household & Kitchen Furniture,
Beds, Bedsteads & Furniture,
Plate,
Carpets,
Chairs,
Tables,

Together with a number of other articles useful in Housekeeping.

The LIBRARY of the deceased, consisting of upwards of 600 volumes, among which are many valuable Books in

Theology,

History,

Poetry,

Biography,

And several Greek, Latin and French Books.

==ALSO==

A Negro Woman, considered a good House Servant, with her daughter about 7 or 8 years old, and a NEGRO MAN, of about 20.

Conditions Cash.

By order of the Executors.

James Fraser, Auct'r.

April 30. E