

FRIDAY, APRIL 21, 1815.

RICHMOND ACADEMY, FEMALE DEPARTMENT.

THE Subscriber having been appointed by the President of the Richmond Academy, Preceptor of the Female Department, informs the public that his School was opened on Monday, 20th ult. for the reception of Females only.

A separate Apartment having been appropriated to the Females, no impropriety in conduct or in expression can possibly arise from an intercourse of the two sexes; and it will be the care and the pleasure of the Subscriber to prevent his Scholars from intermingling with the boys, during vacant hours, as long as they remain under his sight & control—Unwearied attention will be paid to an improvement in manners, Literature and Morality; and all the useful and ornamental branches of education will be faithfully taught.

Drawing and Painting, by a competent Teacher—in the rooms appropriated to the accommodation of the subscriber's family.

Mrs. Dixon and Miss Miller are associated with the subscriber in this department, who are fully able to instruct in the elementary branches of education, in plain Needle Work and Embroidery.

A few Boarders will be taken into the Family of the Subscriber, and he pledges himself that every attention will be paid to their comfort & convenience.

March 3.

Thos. H. Dixon.

NOTICE.

ALL persons indebted to the Estate of Charles Johnston late of this City deceased, are requested to make immediate payment, and all those who have demands against the Estate, are requested to present them forthwith for settlement, as the subscriber is determined to apply to the next Court of ordinary, for letters dismisory on the Estate.
