

State of Georgia, Richmond County, in the County of Richmond.

I, Anthony Blache of the State of Georgia, do hereby certify that I am of sound mind and weak in body but perfect in mind and memory, and I do hereby make this my last Will and Testament. I do hereby give and bequeath all that I own to the Almighty God who gave it all, hoping through His merciful and blessed Saviour at the general resurrection of the dead to receive my body to be buried in a decent Christian manner at the discretion of my Executors and Executors, and I do hereby name and appoint my dear and beloved Wife Frances Blache, and Francis Foster of South Carolina, Barnum and Robert Blache, I give and bequeath my Estate as follows: after the payment of all my just debts the balance of my whole Estate of full legal description I give and bequeath unto my dear and beloved Wife Frances Blache, my son Alfred Blache, and my daughter Eliza Blache, share and share alike — and in case there should be an intermarriage of my beloved Wife, the husband thereof shall have no control over any part of my said Estate but the same shall be hired out or rented to the best advantage for the use of my said Children, and in case of the death of either of my Children, the property of the deceased shall revert to the other. Given under my hand and seal this twenty first day of October in the Year of our Lord One thousand Eight hundred and fourteen and in the thirty ninth year of our Independence.
