

And upon the death of my dear wife I have left to my dear children, my large estate of land, and other things, which I have left to them, and I have given them all that I thought fit, from the share of my dear wife, the refusal, her highest price for the said lot of land, and I have at the discretion of my children to sell what part of the crop, household furniture and other things they think proper for the use of my children, and I have nominated, constituted and appointed William, Glasgow & Adam, Miles, and my son Charles Bedingfield, when he comes of age to be my Executors of this my last will and Testament. In Witness thereof I have signed and published this my last will and Testament in the presence of us who at his request have become witnesses thereof.
