

State of Georgia.

In the name of God, Amen, I Bridget Cooper of Richmond County Widow, being of sound and disposing mind, knowing invisible of the mortality of my body and relying for salvation on the merits death and sufferings of the blessed Redeemer, do make and declare this to be my last Will and Testament, that is to say, I give devise and bequeath unto my Grand Children Amelia and Malinda, Daughters of Robert and Anna Walker, all my Estate in possession, or to which I claim or may be entitled, and to be so divided as to make their respective proportions as nearly equal as may be, having due regard to the property Amelia already possesses; and it is my will and desire should my Executors admit thereby, that my Executor do purchase for Malinda a Tract of value equal to the Tract owned by her sister, and should my Executor not admit of doing more, then it is all to be laid out for Malinda Sackley. I appoint my son in Law Stephen Jones Executor of this my Last Will & Testament.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and Seal the twenty second day of May in the Year of our late Country hundred and ten.

Bridget Cooper

Witnessed by the Testator in our presence by us witnessed in her presence and in the presence of the Testator.

Attest My hand this 22nd day of May 1820

Richmond Co. GA Wills
www.georgiapioneers.com

[illegible]