

...of the State of Georgia, by sound mind, memory and understanding, do hereby and declare this to be my last will and testament in manner following, that is to say I give devise and bequeath my beloved wife Mary Bugg, a tract of two hundred acres of land, be the same more or less lying on Green Creek in Richmond County aforesaid adjoining land where Isaac Wood now lives: one hundred acres which was devised to me by my deceased father, and the balance purchased from my brother William Bugg.
Also a negroe man slave named Bob, one Jorrel Horse branded on the mounting shoulder C. To hold the said tract of land, negroe man slave and horse unto my wife Mary Bugg her heirs and assigns forever. provided my son Samuel should die before her: but in case he should first die, then the same to go unto my said son Samuel his heirs and assigns. I also give devise and bequeath unto my said wife Mary, (excepting only one feather bed and furniture) all my house hold furniture, to go therewith one third part of my stock of cattle and hogs: To hold the same to her, her executors and administrators I give devise and bequeath unto my son Samuel Bugg, and the child or children my Wife may be now pregnant with, all the rest and residue of my estate both real and personal, which I now have, and that which I am entitled unto at the death of my dear mother: to hold the same to him or them (as he or they may be) and to his or their heirs and assigns forever. I do hereby constitute and appoint my brothers William, Edmond and Samuel Bugg, Executors of this my last will and testament, whom I do appoint Guardians to my son Samuel and the child my wife may be now pregnant with.

...the best of his mind my son Samuel become of age and the profits thereof after my just debts and funeral charges are paid, to be applied in educating and maintaining my said son Samuel, and the child or children my wife may be now pregnant with, and in case the profits thereof should be more than sufficient for that purpose it is my Will and desire that such overplus may be laid out in the best manner for improving and increasing my child or childrens estate. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal, the thirtieth day of august. One thousand seven hundred and eighty six
