

In the name of God Amen. I Garland Sinead of the State of Georgia, Richmond county and city of Augusta, being very sick and weak in body, but of perfect mind and memory, thanks be given unto God: Calling unto mind the mortality of my body, and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die; do make and ordain my last will and testament, that is to say: Principally and first of all, I give and recommend my soul into the hand of Almighty that gave it; and my body I recommend to the earth to be buried in decent christian burial, at the discretion of my executors, nothing doubting but at the general resurrection, I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God. And as touching such worldly estate wherewith it has pleased God to bless me with in this life, I give, devise and dispose of the same in the following manner and form: First, I give and bequeath to Agnes my dearly beloved wife, one third part of all the real and personal property I am possessed of, after my funeral expenses and all my just debts is paid; and also I give and bequeath to my well beloved son John Claburn; and the child that my dearly beloved wife is now big with, be it son or daughter, the other two thirds of all my estate, as before mentioned, after my funeral expense and all just debts is paid; and further it is my will, that if either of the children above mentioned should die before they are of age or unmarried, that their part shall be equally divided between my beloved wife and the surviving child; and if both should die under age or unmarried, then the whole of their parts to return to my beloved wife, if she survived them; and if she should die unmarried, then her part to go to the surviving children; and also I do order, and it is my will that the parts falling to my children should be and remain in the hands of my beloved wife, during her widowhood, and after her marriage to be taken into the hands of my executors to be kept for the use of my children. And lastly, I do constitute appoint and ordain my true and trusty friends, William Bell, Senr John Sinead, Nathaniel Sinead, and William H. Bell, Junr my executors of this my last will and testament; and I do hereby utterly disallow, revoke and disannul all and every other former testaments, wills, legacies, bequests and executors by me in any way before named, willed and bequeathed, ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty eight day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and two.

Signed, sealed, published, pronounced, and declared

Garland Sinead