In the presence of God Amen

I Henry Hatcher living in the State and County aforesaid, considering the uncertainty of this mortal life, and being of sound mind and memory (blessed be almighty God for the same) do make and publish this my last Will and Testament, in manner and form following that is to say.

First I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Nancy Hatcher, all my Estate both personal and Real in fee simple, to her and to her heirs to give to whom she pleases at her death, and do hereby appoint her sole Executrix of this my last Will and Testament. Revoking any and all former wills by me made. I witness whereof I have set my Hand and here unto affixed my seal, this twenty second day of August, in the year of our Lord one Thousand Eight Hundred and thirty one.

Signed, sealed, published and delivered by the above named Henry Hatcher, to be his last Will and Testament, in the presence of us who hereunto subscribe our names in presence of the Testator.

In the name of the Eternal - he who does not change - whose power brings me into this world, and, at whose command, I shall be numbered with the dead. - Being now, by the blessing of my maker, in good health and my mind serene, at peace with all good men and having malice or enmity to none - believing firmly in a glorious resurrection of the just - and that the wicked will be treated, according to their deserts. - I have thought fit to make this my Last Will and Testaments in consciousness of the uncertainty of life, and the necessity of arrangements to be made for the payment of my debts, and for the benefit of my family after my death.

Firstly. It is my will and desire that all my just debts be paid as soon as possible, after my decease; and that this important matter may be properly attended to, with as much benefit to my family as the case may admit. I do hereby appoint my Son Lewis F. P. Giblin at present of Augusta in this State, and my Friend Whipple of the County of Camden State of Georgia, my Executors to carry this my Last Will and Testament into effect.

Secondly. Whatever may remain, after paying my just debts as aforesaid, I desire that it may be disposed of in the following manner: - vizt. To my Son Stephen Lewis Giblin being the youngest and without any other issue I give and bequeath the same to him.
