

Georgia, Richmond County,

I James Longstreet of the State and County aforesaid do make and declare this to be my last will and testament First, I give my whole estate, both real and personal to my wife during her widowhood.

Second, Should my wife die before my youngest child now born or which may hereafter be born shall attain the age of sixteen years or is my wife that ~~days~~ whole estate be kept together by my Executors until such youngest child shall arrive at that age and that then my whole estate be divided equally between.

And should my wife die that the estate be kept together as aforesaid by my Executors until such child shall reach that age and then that the whole be divided equally between my wife and such of my children as may be then living either of my children die before the youngest attains the age sixteen having a child or children in life at the time the division take place as aforesaid it is my will that such child or children then take the portion which would have fallen to the parent had he or she lived until the time aforesaid for the division.

Third, The bequests herein before made to my wife are understood intended by me to be in lieu of dower.

Fourth, During my wife's widowhood she is to have the entire use, profits and control of my estate and to her descendants do I entrust the education maintenance of my children during that time, but in case of her death my property to be divided as aforesaid then.

that my children be educated out of the income of my estate as they will allow upon the terms of this division. This is to be paid as before to their support and in case of a deficiency to educate all the children under the last division and to be applied in educating the younger in preference to the older children. Should my youngest child die before he or she attain the age of years and there should be at that time no surviving child under that age then (my wife being dead or married) the division mentioned in the second clause of this will may take place immediately.

I appoint my wife Mary Ann Longstreet, my brother Augustus Longstreet and my son William Longstreet executors of this my last will and testament. In testimony of all which I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this forth of March 1830 in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and thirty.
