

I, John W. Brown, of the City of Philadelphia, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of the original of the will of the said John W. Brown, as the same is now on file in the office of the Register of the City of Philadelphia, and that the same is a true and correct copy of the original of the will of the said John W. Brown, as the same is now on file in the office of the Register of the City of Philadelphia, and that the same is a true and correct copy of the original of the will of the said John W. Brown, as the same is now on file in the office of the Register of the City of Philadelphia.

to the nature of the property next of in any other way for the benefit any case need not mentioned I leave it those concerned to as the law may direct in my executor, administrators or agents of Beards stocks as may be found I may have at my decease.

I allow my friends Samuel May and my son in law David Whitney, this latter of Augusta Georgia, to be jointly and severally my executor and administrators of this my last will and testament, and they or either of them having the privilege any bond should the case require, to nominate and appoint other person in whom they may confide, to act in their stead.
I do hereby revoke all former wills or testaments by me made, humily beseeching the Great Creator of all things to have mercy on me as poor sinner for Jesus Christs sake, amen. Witness my hand & seal this twenty fourth day of May one thousand eight hundred & twenty, and of the American Independence the 46th & 47th years.

John Biggs Seal

Signed sealed published and declared by the above named John Biggs the Testator as for his last will and testament in the presence of us who at his request in his presence and in the presence of each other have subscribed ourselves as witnesses thereto

John Phillips

Mrs Lee

Philadelphia September 29th 1820. Then personally appeared John Phillips and Mrs Lee the witnesses to the foregoing will and in the solemn oaths according to Law did depose and say that they do see and hear John Biggs the Testator in the said will named & seal publish & declare the same & for his last will & testament, and that at the doing thereof he was of sound mind memory & understanding to the best of their knowledge & belief.

And Biggs one of the executors of the said will affirmed this 29th day of September 1820

Edmund Rogers Dep. Biggs

Then personally came Samuel May and in the foregoing will to have met with success fully, except within the O. Believing as far as the amount of the Swiss, John Bay

John Gest. Register

A Column's Guest Register of Wines & Spirits under my hand and seal of office this 10th day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty six.

John Gust Register

A. Edward King, Esquire, Pres.

Just Judge of the Court of Common Pleas &c in and for the City and County of Philadelphia in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania duly commissioned and qualified. Do make known by these presents to all whom it may concern, that John Est Esquire, named in the foregoing certificate and thereto subscribed, as Register of Wills and in the said City and County aforesaid. Is at present; and was at the date of this said certificate the legally commissioned, constituted and appointed Register as aforesaid and that his acts and doings as such are not to legal force and credit.

In witness and confirmation whereof I have set my hand and directed the seal of our said Court to be fixed hereunto Done at Philadelphia this 20th day of November 1856

Edwin King

President J. Edgar

Robert Morris Esquire, duly sworn known and qualified persons and for the City and County the Court of American People represents its history.