

[illegible]

I give and bequeath to my dear friend, Elizabeth Thompson, of New Hampshire, my lot in this City, on the back half of land, which was one of an acre, bounded by Mount Pleasant, on the north, by Helen Lot on the west, which lot of ground is the eastern part of Helen's, and is the eastern moiety of the lot formerly belonging to the late Mrs. J. W. Thompson.

Second page

11/20/80

In Trust, to and for the use, benefit, and behoof, of my nephew, John Henry Smith, late of Franklin College, in this State, and son of my brother William D., and my nephew James Rogers, one of my sons, Edward Rogers, of Iowa, near Randolph town, County Andrew, Ireland, and those for ever.

I give and bequeath to my aforesaid friends Robert Campbell, James Campbell, James Harp, all that tract of land on the West water of Bear Creek, lying in Richmond and Columbia Counties, which I purchased of my uncle Nathaniel, the title for it being made to me by Matthew Mahan, in his will, and the said land, I in Trust also, to and for the sole use, benefit, and behoof of my said nephews, John Campbell Junr. and James Boggs, share and share alike, as tenants in common and not as Joint Tenants, to them their heirs and assigns, the said lot and tract of land, to be surrendered by my said trustee aforesaid, to my said nephews, when the shall attain the age of twenty one years, and be otherwise, capable in law to receive and hold the same, and my will and desire is, that should either of my two nephews die before the attain the age of twenty one years, and without lawful issue, then to his next estate, but if of them should be no brother, then to his mother and sister and their heirs.

I give and bequeath to the president and directors (for the time being) of the Ligonier Free School Society, Two Thousand Dollars, the Interest or income arising from said bequest, to be distributed amongst those scholars, whom the directors may consider exemplary in their conduct, and regular attendants of said school, who may from the situation of their parents (if any) require aid, in clothing, food, and at such time annually as the said

Third page

for the time being, shall deem fit and proper.

They will by no means fire hundreds of dollars for the sake of some trifling of conduct, and attachment to the cause. They are many of them, while in their youth and have been quite to long of our aid. Brother James has the shares of the Capital stock held by and in the name of the

Let all give and bequeath to my dear brother James the out farm originally bought by my father of John Edwards the steward of the lands of Ballyrobin, and which fell to the right of my father, to him and his heirs forever, which I have since since the death of my father.

I give and bequeath to my nephew William Bygones, then standing to be paid to him, by my Executors, at their discretion.

I give and bequeath to my nephew Harper C. Bryson of the Hartford Conn. Office to be paid to him by my Executors, at their Convenience.

I give and bequeath to my aforementioned nephew William J. C. Allen the remaining seventy three shares held by me, of the Capital Stock of the Bank of Augusta, in said Bank, and I do hereby appoint my friend Robert Campbell of Tenn Guardian of the person, and property of my said nephew.

I give and bequeath to my Cousin Maria Harper, and my cousin (the sister) Misses Nancy Kelster, Sincerely Ten Thousand Dollars to be Fourth Page

to be paid to them by my Executors at their convenience.

Let your order begeth to Robert Campbell, and his brother to be paid, Quarterly, five thousand Dollars, to be paid to them by Quarterly at their convenience.

I give and bequeath to John B. Daniel, son of my friend Dr. Daniel, five hundred Dollars to be paid to him or his father at the discretion of my Executors.

I give and bequeath to John C. Carmichael son of my deceased son John Carmichael of this City five hundred Dollars, to be paid to him for his use, at the convenience of my executor.

Adelphi and beneath to John C. Martin son of my friend John C. Martin formerly of this place, but now of Adgeph his long collection, to be sent to his dear father at the of the space of four years, to some person or persons to be named by my said Will, which here they are to be named by him and his said Will, together with his letters of commission, and the said person or persons is also give and bequeath to my said nephew and his heirs, to be for interest in Stock or loaned out to such persons or persons as he or they provided, he agrees to invest the proceeds of the same in the same way, and which income I intend for his support and maintenance.

I hereby order and direct that all the rest and residue of my Estate not before divided away, may be sold within five years by my Executors hereinafter named, on such notices, at such places, and in such manner and terms, as my Executors or a majority of them see good and think fit and proper, and all the monies arising therefrom, to be invested in such Stock, or Stocks, or loaned out to such persons or persons, as my said Executors may deem fit and proper.

I give and bequeath to my brother James Campbell aforementioned aforesaid, One fourth Share of all the rest and residue of my Estate not before divided away, to him and his heirs for ever.

Fifth Page

I give and bequeath to my said brother James Campbell, for the children of my brother William Campbell, of the town of Dublin in Ireland, one fourth Share of all the rest and residue of my Estate not before divided away, the income arising from such share in the hands of my Executors, to be transmitted annually to my brother James, and by him applied to the use and benefit of the children of my said brother William Campbell, in such manner, and ways as he may deem fit and proper, with the privilege to my said Executors, to apply any part of said income to the use of the parents, or parent, of the said children, should he at any time deem it advisable so to do.

I give and bequeath to my sister Ellen Warren, wife of John Warren of Ballymena near Randalstown in Northern Ireland, the sum of £1000, and all the rest and residue of my Estate not before divided away the income of which my Executors will transmit to her annually or at longer intervals as they conveniently can, and the said bequest at her death to go to her children as she may order, will, and direct.

I give and bequeath to my sister Jane Allen, wife of the late John Allen of Belfast, in Ireland, the remaining fourth share of all the rest and residue of my Estate not before divided away, and the income of the same to her son William John Campbell Allen and his heirs, and the income arising from said bequest, annually or at longer intervals as they conveniently can, to her son John James Campbell Allen and his heirs.

...shall be bound thereby in all cases being official, and where there should be any sort of ambiguity in my will and testament.

And I do hereby nominate and appoint, my said friends, the Campbells of Savannah, and James Fraser and James Hargrave of this City, Executors of this my last will and Testament. In Witness Whereof

The testimony whereof I have herewith set my hand and seal, the fifth day of July, Eighteen Hundred and twenty five (1825) this above writing which fills one sheet of paper of four pages, and covers nearly two pages of another sheet, was signed, sealed, published, and declared by the said John Campbell as his last will and testament, the fifth day of July in the year of Our Lord Eighteen Hundred and twenty five, in our presence, and in the presence, and in the presence of each other, we have at his request, herewith set our names as witnesses thereto, the word "Campbell, as," being added and amended previously to signing

John Campbell

Geo. Hargrave

H. Board

W. Henry Egan

Savannah

Richmond County

Friday the 24th day of October 1825

In Chambers,

Present this Honors,

Samuel Hale &

Labun Berrey

The foregoing last will & testament of John Campbell was read before me, and I do hereby certify, being duly sworn, that he was personally present and did see the said Testator sign, seal, publish, pronounce and declare, the same to be & as his last will & testament, that he was of sound and disposing mind, and of legal age, at the time of his death, and that he was not under any undue influence, and that the same be published, and in the presence of each other.

Seal
Richmond County }

At a Court of Ordinary held in and for the County aforesaid, on Monday the third day of November 1828, the foregoing last will and testament of John Campbell deceased, was presented in Court and ordered to be Recorded.

Test, William Longstreet Clerk