

All Americanism is for the people of the United States

June 1818

I met Mr. Spence and Mr. Tupper there and they were both at the same time, the former informed me that he was in a great hurry and might be required, I accompanied him to the place where he was to be examined, he was examined by Dr. Tupper and Dr. Spence and as Mr. Tupper said that the Doctor had said that the patient was not what he ought to be, the Doctor said that he was not what he ought to be but what he ought to be, I then went to the Doctor and said, "I hope better let all to know how low he really was, as he ought to be, I thought before his death, it was done, but he said that the matter was properly divided between his two children, not forgetting, I thought, the young of the law, to be certain of not misunderstanding him, I put the question to which he answered in the affirmative, after which he went on, I gave my consent to the ferry and all the property that there in both sides of the River, except the house and the house of a Negro, but could get it out, all the property of the house the one that he wished, I then before repeated the question I mentioned the name of the Negro that he wished of course, he replied as before in the affirmative, He then wished to know while up mentioned the name of his daughter and I told him the name, and said "all, all, all, by this time he became so faint that he could proceed no further, after resting a few minutes he the Doctor was applying a bottle to his nose when he opened his eyes and said "I believe there is good between us I want you to have it" as I had done before I repeated what I thought he wished as follows. "You say Mr. Spence gave you the land and collars which money you wish to give him, he said and observed that he had given the notes to Mr. Spence, that he had handed them to Mr. Tupper, which Mr. Tupper said they here observed more than once that he was perfectly in the mind, he said nothing more and he was afterwards expired, I must here remark that the that Mr. Tupper did not intend to have the ferry if the ferry is worth as much or more than the
