In the name of God, Amen, I Priscilla Cooper of Richmond County, widow, being of sound and disposing mind, conscious of the mortality of my body and desiring for salvation in the next death and sufferings of the blessed Redeemer, do make and declare this to be my last Will and Testament, that is to say, I give devise and bequeath unto my Grand Children Cornelia and Malinda, daughters of Robert and Ann Walker, all my Estate in possession, as to which I have or may be entitled, and to be so divided as to make them equal proportions as nearly equal as may be, having devolved to the property of Cornelia already possessed; and it is my will and desire that they do admit thereof, that my Executors do purchase for Malinda a negro or value equal to the negro owned by her sister, and should my first husband not admit of doing more, then it is all to be paid for all Malinda's share. I appoint my son in law John Thomas Executors of my last will & Testament.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the twenty second day of May in the Year of our Lord One thousand and ten.
