

In the Name of God, Amen

I Joshua Tullage of Richmond County and State of Virginia do hereby declare and certify that I am of sound mind and memory and know this to be my last Will and Testament, that is to say, First, I commend myself soul and body to the preservation and that God who made me, and to that Jesus who redeemed my soul giving up his life for all men.

And, I give and bequeath to my three Negroes Peter, Paul and Ruth, my land and Plantation Utensils, One Cow & Calf, twelve Hogs, and of hand due by Rodom Tullage, for two Hundred & Twenty Dollars upon of interest, a receipt for one other Note due by Jason Genderson for hundred & thirty dollars and interest out of which Peter should receive eighty dollars, his receipt is now in hand for the whole on these conditions; a note on Henry Evans for two dollars twelve and a half cents as the following Articles declare, my just debts are to be paid

Then my Wife Ursula Tullage and my three Children, Eliza, Arthur and James Alfred are to have the whole of the balance of my Estate equally divided between them - All other accounts not enumerated in this Will which is due to me, are to be disposed of for the benefit of my said heirs and Creditors in the same manner as is herebefore pointed out, and all the Beds and other Household furniture and Utensils are to be disposed of in the same manner.

In order to carry into execution this Will according to the tenor thereof I do hereby nominate and appoint Holland M. Tyler and William Tullage first to be my Executors and my Wife Ursula Tullage to be my Guardian to this my last Will and Testament, revoking all former Wills of any thereof, In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand at this 11th May 1809.

Joshua Tullage
