

Georgia
Richmond County } 3

I Lawrence Somers of the County testifies as calling to mind the uncertainty of this mortal life, and of sound disposing mind, do make and ordain this to be my Will & Testament.

First. My good friend Captain John Cornick having been kind enough to obtain a credit for me in Savannah at the store of Francis H. Welman, to the amount of about five thousand dollars and occasionally furnished at other places, the goods & necessaries for keeping up my store in this place, by which he is continually liable for me to that amount - my most ardent desire is, that all the property I may die possessed of be sold & disposed of to the best advantage, in the opinion of my Executors hereafter named, in order to raise the sum of five thousand dollars, more or less, & the same to be applied towards a satisfaction of all such sum or sums of money said John Cornick may have herebefore, or may hereafter or after my death, make himself liable for on my account.

Secondly. All the rest and residue of my estate of kind & sort, I give & bequeath to Mrs Catharine Dugan her heirs - who live in the City of Alexandria, State of Va.

Lastly I do nominate & appoint my friend John Catharine Dugan both aforesaid, my Executor to carry into effect, that my last will, according to my best intentions and meaning through my said Executor have been made & my hand & seal thereto this 1st day of June 1839.
