

I, Mary M. Manning, the wife of William M. Manning, do hereby certify that the late of Augustus Manning, my husband, has made this my last Will and Testament.

First, I give and bequeath to my husband Robert Manning all the money which I received from the Estate of the late Charles Bugg of Edgefield South Carolina together with Eighteen hundred and fifty dollars which I had previously received from said Estate.

Second, I further give and bequeath to my said husband the undisturbed use of that part of the Estate of the late William A. Bugg of Richmond County Georgia, to which I am entitled for and during his natural life, with permission to remove the negroes to Mobile, but after his death all the property derived from the said Estate of the late William A. Bugg, that is to say, all the surviving negroes, and any amount of money he may hereafter receive from the Estate, shall revert to my beloved son Charles A. Bugg of Augusta aforesaid.

Third, Should it so happen that my husband should survive my son and he leave no child, then and in that case, the said property derived from the said Estate of William A. Bugg, shall be the property of my said husband.

Fourth, If contrary to all expectation, the Estate of the said William A. Bugg should prove insolvent, and my son receive nothing from it, then it is my will that my husband his heirs executors administrators or assigns shall pay to my son one half of the principal received from the Estate of the said Charles Bugg, notwithstanding the first item, unless my said husband should survive him, in that case it remains his.

Fifth, I request my friends Peter Boisclair & Andrew J. Miller of Augusta aforesaid and Charles Labizem of Mobile to serve as Executors of this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto put my hand and seal this twentieth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six.

Mary M. Manning

The words "his heirs executors administrators or assigns" being just intimated say between the fifth & sixth lines from the bottom first page of this Will.

I Hermann Longstreet of said State and County being advanced in years, but of sound mind and memory do make this my last will & testament

First, I desire to be buried in a plain unostentatious manner, and that a plain stone be placed at the head of my grave, with on there inscriptions upon it, thereon my name, the time and place of my birth, the time & place of my death and the following from the lips of the patriarch Jacob "I have waited for thy salvation O Lord Secondly, I give to my daughter Rebecca Cornfield five thousand five hundred dollars.

Third, I desire my executors to appropriate two thousand dollars to the payment of the debts due at the date of this will, by my son William Longstreet to John P. King, James Bentons estate, Gilbert Longstreet & Augustus B Longstreet, to be divided among them according to the amounts of their demands, computing the principal sum alone; but upon this condition, that each of said creditors upon receiving their respective dividends, do give to my said son William a full and entire release & discharge from all further liability to them on account of said debts. Should there be a balance of the two thousand dollars left after paying said creditors the principal of their debts aforesaid, I give that balance to the said William.

Fourth, I desire that my negro woman Leah be sold to a Master District of her own choosing, provided one can be found who will give for her within twenty five per cent of what any collector may think her fair value.

Fifth, My interest in the lands conveyed by David Matthews to my late husband, commonly called the Lewis Clarke lands, I give to my children Rebecca, Gilbert, Augustus & William in equal proportions Sixth, All the rest of my real estate is to be conveyed with all my personal property to my heirs and assigns forever in order to meet the pecuniary demands of my children aforesaid.

Seventh, I give to those sons of my wife Mary said one hundred dollars
