

In the name of God Amen.

I Oswald One, of the State of Georgia and County of Richmond, being aware of the uncertainty of Life, and the certainty of Death, and firmly believing as I do, in the great truths of the holy Scriptures, after a most serious investigation and diligent search of the best writers and commentators on this important subject, which conviction, whilst it enjoining a sacred duty, affords much gratification to avow it publicly on all proper occasions, do in the name of the Father, Son and holy Ghost, publish and declare this to be my last will and Testament. Impressing, I give and bequeath unto my Brother Joseph One, Twenty acres of Land, as surveyed in the year 1819, with the improvements thereon, being the present residence of himself and family; with the privilege of cutting fire wood of pine and rail timber less than that for sawing on any Lands belonging to me, but not for the purpose of making sale thereof; to him and his heirs forever; but upon the condition that it is never to be sold without the consent of my Executors being first obtained.

I also give and bequeath unto the children of my aforesaid Brother, viz. Mary R. Campbell, Joseph A. One, Anne A. One and Frances M. One, two hundred Dollars each.

I also give and bequeath unto the children of my Brother William One, dec'd, viz. Joseph R. One and William O. One, two hundred Dollars each.

I also give and bequeath unto the children of my Brother John One, dec'd, viz. Elizabeth Howell and Ann One, two hundred Dollars each.

and Dollars each. These legacies I leave as a token of my affection for my Nephews and Nieces.

Item, I give and bequeath unto the Female Orphan Asylum of Augusta Geo., one hundred Dollars, to be paid into the hands of its Treasurer.

Item, I give and bequeath unto the Seaman's Friends Society of Charleston S. C., two hundred Dollars, to be paid into the hands of its Treasurer.

These several legacies I wish paid out of my Estate whenever it shall best suit the convenience of my Executors hereafter named.

Item, Having erected a small Building near Butters Creek on my Land, and which has been consecrated to the service of God, it is my will and desire that it and the land on the south by a ditch, on the north by a line parallel with the ditch and forty yards from the house, on the west by the Savannah road, and on the east by a line parallel with the road and forty yards from the house, remain free and open to all denominations of Christians both white and colored forever. The preacher in every case being approved by one of the Christian denominations in Augusta, either Presbyterian, Episcopalian, Baptist or Methodist, and not excluding the Roman Catholics, and to be the husband of one wife.

Item, It is my will and desire that the remainder of my Estate after the foregoing bequests have been provided for shall be divided and distributed as hereafter directed, and as the division and distribution of my Estate among my children, is intended to be equal in value to each, my desire is that such of them as have already received a portion thereof, however small, be charged with the same, and the recieve less in that proportion upon a final division and distribution.

Item, I give and bequeath unto my daughter Ann P. Leppington, relict of Charles Leppington dec'd, one tenth part of my Estate both real and personal, to her and her heirs forever. I value the portion of property which she has already received from me, at eleven hundred Dollars.

Item, I give and bequeath unto my son John P. Oak, one other tenth part of my Estate both real and personal, to him and his heirs forever. I value the portion of property which he has already received from me, at five thousand Dollars.

Item, I give and bequeath unto my son William J. Oak, one other tenth part of my Estate both real and personal, to him and his heirs forever.

Item, I give and bequeath unto my son Paul J. Oak, one other tenth part of my Estate both real and personal, to him and his heirs forever.

Item, I give and bequeath unto my daughter Sarah Adams, relict of John S. Adams dec'd, one other tenth part of my Estate both real and personal, during her natural life, but after her decease, without issue, my will and desire is that the portion of my Estate which shall be assigned to her in the division and distribution thereof, shall revert back, and be then equally divided between my other children, share and share alike. I value the portion of property which she has already received from me, including Porticus the husband of Martha, Tillu and her children, and Luky and her children, at twelve hundred Dollars.

Item, I give and bequeath to my daughter Ameline Oak, one other tenth part of my Estate, both real and personal, to her and her heirs forever.

Item, I give and bequeath unto my daughter Catherine Oak,

...of the said ... one other tenth part of my Estate both real and personal, during her natural life, and after her decease, without regard to my will and desire is that portion of my Estate which shall be assigned to her in the division and distribution thereof, shall revert back, and be then equally divided between my other children, share and share alike. Some the portion of property which she has already received from me, at one thousand dollars.

Item, I give and bequeath to my Daughter Maria Figgins now intermarried with John Brown, one other tenth part of my Estate both real and personal, during her natural life and that of her said husband also, but after their decease she she leave no issue, then and in that event, my will and desire is, that such part of my Estate as shall in the division and distribution thereof fall to her share, revert back, and be then equally divided, between my other children, share and share alike. I value the portion of property which she has already received from me, at thirteen hundred dollars.

Item, I give and bequeath to my Executors hereafter named, one fifth or two other tenth parts of my Estate both real and personal, being the balance after the foregoing bequests, to be held by them together with John Edgar, now intermarried with my grand child Anna Carmichael, as their joint and several Guardians of and for the use and benefit of my two Daughters Mary Elizabeth, now intermarried with John Carmichael, and Martha Hewitt, now intermarried with but Longstreet, and the children of my said two Daughters hereby giving to my Executors hereafter named with the said John Edgar or a majority of them, the sole and only power to receive, control and manage such portion of my Estate as may in the division and distribution thereof fall to them.
My Daughter Mary Carmichael is to be charged with twelve hundred dollars received already from me. My daughter Martha Longstreet is to be charged with fifteen hundred debtors, received already paid and
