In the name of God Amen. I Peter Carr declare this to be my last Will and Testament, viz: 1st I give devise and bequeath all my Estate real and personal which I am possessed of or entitled unto either in Law or Equity unto my beloved wife Elizabeth Carrs and to my sons John and Patrick share and share alike. In case my wife dies without making any other disposition of her part, the same to go to said sons John and Patrick; so it is my will that if John or Patrick shall die unmarried and without issue, that the part or parts of such deceased to go to my wife and the survivor. But this is to prevent her, or either of our sons after becoming of age selling disposing of their separate parts as either may see fit. In case sons shall die under age (& their mother not living) then their of my Estate to descend to and be held and enjoyed by my Thomas P. Carrs and Peter Carrs Ors share and share alike.

2nd I do hereby appoint my said wife Executrix during widowhood of this my last will and Testament and I do appoint my friend aforesaid.

I do empower my Executives with the consent of either Guardian of my children to sell and convey such part or parts of my Estate as may be deemed best and to invest the same in purchases of other property or monies in the public funds. My Executive is also empowered to make conveyances in all cases where I have sold property on the purchaser or purchasers paying according to the contract.

In case my wife marries or on Johns becoming of age, which may first happen, my Estate to be divided and she to take and hold her share apart from the rest from that time: Should the division be occasioned by her marriage, the share or shares belonging to our sons to be under the control and management of their Guardians. Until the division my Executive to apply the profits of my Estate to the support of herself and the support and education of my sons.
