Court of Ordinary September term 1829

The foregoing last will and testament of James D.
Hurst, being duly proven, Ordered that the same be read

Test William Longstreet Clerk

State of Georgia

Richmond County

I Sampson Vamkin of the County and State aforesaid, being awake in body, but of sound and disposing mind, do pronounce publish and declare, this will to be my last will and testament.

I give and bequeath unto my son Sampson W. Vamkin all my property both real and personal (except as hereinafter excepted) consisting of a tract of Land lying and being in the County of Coweta, in the eighth District, and known number one hundred and twenty nine, drawn by me in the late land lottery, my stock of Cattle, in the possession of my son in Saw Thomas Easton in Cowley County, and a note of hand due me by Thomas Easton.

I give to my daughter, for her attention to me in my sickness, the sum of one hundred dollars, in the Village of Harrisburg, in the County of Richmond, of which I intend to have possession immediately after my decease.

I give to each of my following named children, my first son, James M. Samkin, William Flanagan and Richard Watson and the heirs of my daughter Jane, in husband, ten five cents each.

I give to my son James M. Samkin two hundred dollars to be paid out of the amount due me by my son William, which I desire my son William to pay him as early as possible, the balance due after that he can appropriate to his own use.

I give my furniture of every description to my son Samuel M. Samkin.

I nominate and appoint my son William Samkin, and my son in law Thomas Easton executors to this my last will and testament, and request them to carry the same into effect as I have expressed and declared.

In testimony that this is my last will and testament,
I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this third day of October 1828.

Samuel Samkin

Signed, Sealed, published and declared in presence of—
