Test. Isaac Herbert, Clerk

Augusta 12th of Sept. 1810

Be it remembered that I have this day appointed Nathaniel my Executor to my last Will and testament. First after paying my burial expences and all my just debts, he is to take Sarah Payson my niece daughter of my brother David Payson and her to bring up as he may think most proper, and when she shall have reached the property real and personal which may be left after paying for her education and accomplishments, shall be given up to her and no other arrangements can or shall be made, as Witness my hand this the above date.
