I Edward Ward being now very low and infirm, but having my proper mind and recollection - He now and in the presence of Henry Lockhart, and James W. Samuels make my Last Will and Testament -

After my debts are paid, and two hundred and twenty five Dollars paid in part of a house which James W. Samuels has rented for me, for the year, and which I wish my wife Frances Ward to occupy, I wish my money and effects disposed of as follows -

In the love and affection I have for my Father and Mother, my two Brothers William and Thomas, and my two Sisters Ann and Sarah, and my wife Frances, and the good feeling that I have for the poor and indigent children of Richmond County, I herewith dispose of my money and effects in the following way -

I give and bequeath unto my Sister Ann my silver watch and chain - I give unto my wife Frances five Hundred Dollars in cash - I give unto my wife Frances all my household furniture, and I allow
