

Georgia. Be it remembered that on the twenty sixth day of November in this County. The year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred & twenty nine.
 Personally came & appeared before us, Justices of the Superior Court for the County aforesaid Henry Hatchy, Francis Hatchy, Elizabeth Simmons, & John Simmons, who being solemnly & duly sworn according to their faith, & the forms of law, depose & say that on & about the tenth day of September in the year aforesaid & in the County aforesaid at the house of the Reverend John Simmons, they the said deponents were called upon by Byrd Ferrell, late of the County of Union in the State aforesaid, who was then of a sound & disposing mind, but much indisposed in health & apparently fast approaching death, & and from which ^{indisposition} he the said Byrd Ferrell departed this life, (without having recovered health) at the house aforesaid, on the 5th day of October in the year aforesaid, & the said deponents do further depose & say that at the said time they were called upon by the said Byrd, he the said Byrd, requested that the said deponents, would bear testimony that he gave & bequeathed unto his brother John, Cathbert Ferrell of the County aforesaid, all his estate, consisting principally of negro slaves, promissory notes, a horse saddle & bridle, debts due him, wearing apparel and the like; and that the said deponents were all at the said time present with the said Byrd Ferrell, & by him requested to bear testimony as aforesaid; and they do further depose, and say that the said Byrd for at least ten days before the making said will had resided at the house aforesaid, immediately preceeding the making thereof.
 And that the making of said will appeared to us to be his own free & voluntary act.
 And these deponents further say not. The words "from" & the words "that" interlined before sworn to. Truly sworn to & subscribed before us on the day & year first aforesaid
