

I do hereby certify that the within contains the true will and testament of John B. Dykman, as far as I believe; and that I will well and truly execute the same according to the laws of the State of Oregon, as well as bring it on open court 8th February 1869.

Henry Parker

Only

Henry D. S.

Recorded this 16th day of February 1869

Robert D.

I John B. Dykman of the State of Oregon, and county of of sound mind and memory, do make, ordain, publish, and this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking and void all former wills by me at any time heretofore made.

Item 1st I direct that all my just debts be paid at my death as possible.

Item 2nd I give, bequeath, and devise, unto my Mary Jane Dykman for and during her natural life, all my real and personal, free from the debts, liabilities and of her husband. Scored Co. Ga. Will Book 2-B (1898-1879) www.georgiapioneers.com and after her death entire without division untill my youngest child attains when it shall be equally divided between all my children. share alike: It is my will and I hereby forbid the sale of of my land, previous to its final distribution and that in the it shall not be hold liable to the debts or contracts of my be kept as a home for my wife and children untill it is already devoted. My personal Estate may be sold or changed over it shall appear to be necessary for the well being of my children, but not until a full consultation has been had excepting, hereafter to be named, upon the property of the estate and it must, with their approval.

Item 3rd It is my will and desire that my wife have the possession and management of my Estate, for the use and my children as long as she continues capable to do, in with my will but should it ever become manifest, from any whenever that my said wife manage my estate with care and duty, although my Executors, hereinafter to be named, to the out of her hands and beyond her control, and administer it directed. Whenever it may be necessary to sell or change my real Estate, for the interests of my wife and children, I authorize my wife and children to do so, without the consent of the court of Ordinary.