Georgia In the name of God Amen I Corbin S. Bridges being afflicted Henry County, in body but of sound mind and being sensible of the shortness of life and certainty of death have thought proper to make this my last will and testament and by so doing I hereby renounce all other wills made by me previous to this date

In the first place it is my will and request that all my just debts should be paid. In the second place it is my will that Elizabeth W. Bridges my wife shall hold all my property both real and personal in her peaceful possession during her life and widowhood subject to the following restrictions (viz) I wish my three sons each of them to have a horse saddle and bridle when they are old enough in the judgment of my wife and Edward P. Oxford to receive them in possession provided it can be done without material injury. I wish all my daughters except three to have a bed and furniture each of them when they marry or are of lawful age provided it is convenient without injury to the condition of the family according to the judgment of my wife & Edward P. Oxford. It is also my request that if at any time a surplus of any thing raised on the farm should remain after a support for the family it be given to any of the children that most need it in all such cases charging them a reasonable price for the same to be account ed for in final settlement my three exceptions daughters are those that have each received a bed & furniture
