memory, but Conscious of the uncertainty of life, and being anxious in case of death of leaving my temporal affairs properly settled and adjusted, do for that purpose make declare and publish this my last will and Testament unpaid be first paid out of such Money as I may have on hand at the time of my decease, or notes accounts or other dues

Item Second - In case of my death without any Child or Children living at the time begotten by my present beloved wife Nancy Morris. It is my will and desire that all the property both real and personal whereof I was possessed at the time of my marriage with her, of whatever kind or description go to my beloved son Alexander C. Morris and I hereby devise and bequeath the same to him - And it is my wish in the same event that all the property both real & personal I have received or may hereafter receive or become entitled to by my said wife by virtue of my marriage with her, shall be given and delivered to her and her Children, and I do hereby devise and bequeath all such property both real & personal as I may have become possessed of or in any way entitled to by virtue of said marriage, to my said beloved wife Nancy & her Children to be hers and theirs forever. I have no Child or Children living at the time of my death.

Item Third - In Case of my having Child or Child by my said wife Nancy living at the time of my death as aforesaid it is then my wish that after the payment of my just debts all my property both real and personal be divided between my said wife and my Children or their representatives in case of the death of any of them strictly in pursuance of the Statutes of distributions in this State - The part or share going to my wife to be for her and her own issue forever -
