 property he left under the Control of my wife as long as she manages the same with prudence for the support of our Children and their Education (that is a good english education) But if at any time my executors see that she is not managing said estate rightly it is my will and desire that they do take the management of the same into their own hands. - It is my will that after all my debts are paid, that out of the next Surplus funds a head and foot stone be erected to my memory. - It is my will that all the Surplus funds that may accrue from the Sale of Crops of Cotton &c from year to year be laid out in the purchase of Negroes for the use of my wife and Children

I hereby appoint, John Hart, Hugh Ward Executors of this my last Will and testament hereby revoking all former wills by me made. I give full power to my Executors to sell and Convey any property either real or personal without being bound by the usual law of applying for leave of Court, or Advertising but in all such matters to act as I my self in my lifetime could do.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the fourteenth day of October One thousand eight hundred and forty three (1843) Signed Sealed and published and declared by the Above named Patrick Norton to be his last will and Testament in the presence of us who at his request and at his presence have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses
