

The last will and Testament of Joseph Campbell of Chatham County and State of Georgia. I Joseph Campbell considering the uncertainty of this mortal life and being of sound mind and memory (Praised be Almighty God for the same) do make and publish this my last will and Testament, in manner and form following

First, I give and bequeath unto my two youngest sons Joseph Campbell and William H. Campbell all the tract of land whereon I now live containing One hundred and forty seven acres more or less, when they shall have paid off all my burial or Funeral expences and all other just debts that remain unsettled at my death unless those expences and debts should exceed the value of the land, if so it is my will and desire that the exceps should be paid out of the proceeds of the perishable property or the undivided fund.

Sec) It is my will and desire that my lot of land in the County of Early known and distinguished in the plan of said County as Lot No 87. 28th district on the Waters of Spring Creek and all my stock, viz. Horses, Hogs, and Cattle, Houses hold and Kitchen Furniture be equally divided amongst all my Children, namely John P. Campbell, James R. Campbell, Joseph Campbell and William H. Campbell my sons, And my daughters Caroline Taylor Harriett Allison and Martha Campbell. Before the above equal distribution is made it is my will and desire that my Executor should give to my two sons Joseph Campbell and William H. Campbell each a bed and Furniture, my other Children having received like Favours in my life time, and moreover before said equal division is made it is my will and desire that my daughter Martha Campbell should receive in cash forty dollars, as a just reward for her attention to me as a nurse in this my last affliction

I hereby appoint my trusty and faithful son Joseph Campbell Executor of this my last will and Testament In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty second day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty three Signed, sealed, published and declared by the above named Joseph Campbell to be his last will and Testament in presence of
