Georgia } In the name of God Amen:
 Taliaferro County } I William Pounds of the County and State aforesaid, being of sound mind memory and body but knowing the uncertainty of human life, do make and declare this as my last will and testament in manner and form following to wit, In the first place I hereby give and bequeath unto David C.
 Daniel of the County and State aforesaid and Robert C. Daniel of the County of Oglethorpe and State aforesaid all my Estate both Real and personal in trust for my wife Nancy Pounds for and during the term of her natural life (or in case my said wife Nancy shall be willing thereto) untill the youngest Child herein named shall become of age, at which time (If my said wife Nancy shall be willing and not otherwise) the said Trustees shall distribute my said Estate in manner and form hereinafter named, but if my said wife Nancy should not be willing then said Division shall not take place as hereinafter directed until the death of my said wife Nancy Now having given my wife Nancy the whole of my estate both Real and personal for and during her natural life except as heretofore except (she being willing to said exception and not otherwise) In the second place I will that after the death of my said wife Nancy or as before stated if she be willing thereto when the youngest Child shall become of age, my said wife Nancy being then alive an equal division of my Estate both real and personal, between and among my Children herein named, to wit, Daniel V. Pounds, Abham J. Pounds, Jared Pounds, William D. Pounds, Zachariah B. Pounds, Martha A. L. Pounds & Lucy J. Pounds, at the same time willing and declaring that to my daughter Sarah J. Bankston the wife of Mildon L. Bankston or the said Mildon L. Bankston or any of their Children it is my Intention to give or bequeath nothing at my death having lived here and there all that I ever intend them to have during my lifetime or do intend them to have any thing at my death

Hereby Constituting, declaring and appointing David C. Daniel and Robert Daniel named herein before as trustees, as my Executors likewise of this my said last will and testament at the same time willing that if the said before named David C. Daniel and Robert Daniel should refuse or from any other cause should not act in either Capacity, that Mildred L. Bankston may not be allowed to become Administrator or trustee or even Guardian to any of my Children in any event

In witness whereof I have herunto set my hand and seal this twentieth day of August In the year of Our Lord Eight hundred and thirty eight
