

Said administration when deceased expired and execute and constitute you the said Joseph B. Rogers the Hogues Administrators of all and singular the real and personal Estate of the said deceased

Witness the Honorable Wm. W. Higgins ordinary for Tattnall County the thirteenth day of October in the year of our Lord 1862

Wm. W. Higgins ordinary Receiv'd by Wm. W. Higgins ordinary Georgia The Honorable the Court of Ordinary for the Tattnall County and State aforesaid

To Benjamin Grooms

Whereas James B. Strickland late of the County and State aforesaid deceased died intestate having whilst he lived up to the time of his death Real and Personal Estate within the County and State aforesaid by means whereof the full disposition and power of governing the administration of all and singular the real and personal Estate of the said deceased and also settling the accounts calculations and reckonings of the said administration and a final discharge of the same to the Court as manifestly known to belong & desiring that the real and personal Estate of the said deceased may be well and truly administered convenient and well disposed of as hereby granted unto the said Benjamin Grooms full power by the Court of these presents to administer the real and personal Estate of the said deceased up to him in his lifetime and at the time of his death and belong and to ask any due for same and receive the same and to pay (same) up

Georgia

The Honorable the Court of Ordinary for Tattnall County the County and State aforesaid

To Joseph B. Rogers & William W. Rogers Whereas James B. Strickland late of the County and State aforesaid deceased died intestate having whilst he lived and at the of his death Real and Personal Estate within the County and State aforesaid by means whereof the full disposition and power of governing the administration of all and singular the real and personal Estate of the said deceased and also settling the accounts calculations and reckonings of the said administration and a final discharge of the same to this Court is manifestly known to belong & desiring that the real and personal Estate of the said deceased may be well and truly administered convenient and well disposed of as hereby granted unto the said Joseph B. Rogers and Wm. W. Rogers full power by the Court of these presents to administer the real and personal Estate of the said deceased up to him in his lifetime and at the time of his death and belong and to ask any due for same and receive the same and to pay the debts in which the said deceased stood engaged up to him in his real and personal Estate will extend according to their rate and order of law being first sworn in the Court of Ordinary aforesaid in order to be recorded on a before the second Monday of January next ensuing and to render a just and true account calculation and reckonings of the (same)

9/10/97

George Washington, the President of the United States, in a letter to the Senate, dated 17th of September 1794, expressed his regret that the late President, George Washington, had not been able to see the Senate in person, and that he had not been able to see the Senate in person, and that he had not been able to see the Senate in person.