The Last Will and testament of Andrew Hobbs late of this county deceased was this day presented in open court, by A. C. Pace one of the Executors therein nominated for Probate when the following caveat was filed to-wit:

A. C. Pace proponent of a paper writing purporting to be the Last Will & testament of Andrew Hobbs dec'd.

Martha Hobbs, Caveator
And now at this term of the court comes Martha Hobbs widow & executrix of Andrew Hobbs deceased and one of the heirs and distribute, of said deceased by her attorneys at Law Haralson Stokes, and enter her caveat, to the paper writing, propounded as the last will and testament of Andrew Hale dec^d. and says that said paper writing ought not to be admitted to record as the last will and testament of the said Andrew Hale dec^d. 1st Because the said Andrew Hale at the time of signing, & publishing, said paper writing, as aforesaid was weak and enfeebled in mind and body and not so disposing in mind & memory as to be capable of making and executing a will.

2nd That said Andrew Hale for several days previous to making, and signing said paper writing, purporting to be his last will and testament was of unsound mind and deficient in memory.

3rd That said Andrew Hale at the time aforesaid and for several days and weeks previous thereto was under the influence and countenance of his daughter Amanda Hale who fraudulently procured said Andrew Hale to make and sign said paper writing purporting to be his last will and testament.

For these and other good causes the said Martha Hale says that said paper writing ought not to be admitted to Record as the last will & testament of Andrew Hale dec^d.
