The Last Will and Testament of John Moody Sr.

Georgia In the name of God Amen!
 I John Moody Sr. of said State and County being of advanced age and knowing that I must shortly depart from this world deem it right and proper both as respects myself and family that I should make a disposition of the property with which a kind providence has blessed me. I therefore make this my last Will and Testament.

I desire and direct that my body be buried in a decent and Christian-like manner suitable to my circumstances.

I desire and direct that all my just debts be paid by my Executor hereafter named.

Item 1st I desire that my property all be kept together for the present year and the proceeds of the crop to be applied to my debts. In case that they should not be enough to pay my debts I desire that my Executor shall sell a negro boy named Isaac for the purpose of paying all my just debts.

Item 2nd I desire and devise to my beloved wife Sarah the plantation upon which I now reside and together with all my negroes except those which will hereafter be pointed out and all my stock, plantation tools, household furniture to have unto to hold during her natural life or widowhood for the purpose of raising and schooling my minor children.

Item 3rd I give and devise to my three older children namely: Lige, Ellen and Ellen, three negroes: Nancy, George and Fanny said negroes are to be appraised and drawn for, those drawing the most valuable are to pay back nothing they are equal. And I further devise as my younger children come of age that they shall be made equal with my three older children.

239 The Last Will and Testament of John Mosty Sr.
I do constitute and appoint my beloved son Jesse Executor to this my last will and testament, this the nineteenth day of January Eighteen hundred and Sixty Two.

John Mosty Sr.
Signed, sealed, declared and published by John Mosty Sr. as his last will and testament in the presence of us the subscribers who subscribe our names hereto in the presence of said testator each of each other, this the nineteenth day of January Eighteen hundred and Sixty Two.
