The Last Will & Testament of Mathew Lyle dec^d

Georgia }
Troup County } In the name of God Amen

I Mathew Lyle Surviving the certainty of a dissolution of all earthly objects, and being old and labouring under bodily affliction, but of sound mind make sign this as my last will and testament. In thus acting I commend my soul to that almighty being who ~~gave~~ brought me into existence. I now proceed by giving and bequeathing certain portions of my Estate to the following named children born in lawful wedlock by my first dear wife deceased viz: I give and bequeath the sum of five hundred dollars of my Estate to the heirs of James Lyle deceased payable twelve months after my decease I also give and bequeath as above the sum of of five hundred dollars to my daughter Elizabeth Colly (wife of Anderson Colly) payable two years after my death - also I give as above the sum of five hundred dollars to my son ^{Troup County Wills 1832-1848} ~~Walter~~ ^{www.georgiapioneers.com} Lyle payable three years after my death - with this proviso that if in opinion of my Executors herein after named that the above Legacies can be paid sooner than the above specified time without injury to the Estate that they are authorized to do so - also it is my will that after my death my Executors cause to be sold within the time prescribed by Law fifty acres of Land being a part of Lot number One hundred and eighty nine in the fifth district of Troup County with a sufficiency of any other part of my Estate which my lawfull Executor may think can be best spared - or so much thereof as will secure the payments of the above Legacies - also all the remaining part of my Estate I will to my dear and beloved wife Sarah Lyle Senr during her life to be disposed of as she may think proper with the advice and consent of the Executor herein after named and after her death the Estate to be equally divided among her bodily offspring - It is also my will that the first named Children with their Legacies annexed be in full of their part of my Estate It is also my will that my wife Sarah Lyle Senr and my Sons Hugh J. Lyle & William P. Lyle be my Executors to execute this my last will and testament according to the true intent and meaning of the same
