

I also give and bequeaths to my wife and each my household and kitchen furnished crockery, bread, lamp, syrup, corn in the crib corn in the mill wheat in the mill my professional accounts mill accounts, horse sheep to be equally divided after paying all my just debts and the ready money on hand after paying my married expenses to be equally divided

And I will that the debt Caroline Sumard owes me be disposed as follows half of it I allow her for the use of her timber cut and the other half I give her for the kindness and attention she has paid me while sick
In witness whereof I set my hand and seal this 10th day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty one.

signed in presence of three witnesses

Dudley S. Jones (S)

J. St. Sumard
J. M. Lacy
B. M. Clements

State of Georgia
Walker County
I, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court of the County of Walker, do hereby certify that the within and foregoing is a true and correct copy of the last will and testament of Joshua S. Sumard, deceased, as the same appears from the records of said Court.

First - I commit my spirit to God who gave it to me.
Second - I bequeaths to my wife Mary St. Carter after my funeral expenses and just debts and paid, all of my estate both real and personal save the prospect of a this Springs could cult that is to be my son Joseph St. Carter if it comes (if the eldest man) to have and use in raising my minor heirs so long as she remains single or lives then to be used to completion of their raising after which to be equally divided amongst my heirs further after they become of age and have had they and not to come in to crowd the minors out.

signed in presence of the day and year above written

James Carter (S)

M. J. Phillips
E. K. Carlock
M. M. Phillips

State of Georgia
Walker County
I, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court of the County of Walker, do hereby certify that the within and foregoing is a true and correct copy of the last will and testament of Joshua S. Sumard, deceased, as the same appears from the records of said Court.