

(70) Georgia Western County Court of Probate, March Term 1822

Personally appeared in open Court Arthur Jackson, James A. Graham, and Saml Beall, who being duly sworn, depose & testify that they saw the within named Francis Beall, sign and promissory the within instrument of writing as his last Will and Testament; and that at the time of his so doing, he was of sound and disposing mind and memory; and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, and at his request, they all became witnesses thereto.

Witness my hand and seal of office in open Court the above date.

Attest: J. Torrence Clerk of Court.

Witness my hand and seal of office in open Court the above date.

Witness my hand and seal of office in open Court the above date.

Witness my hand and seal of office in open Court the above date.

Witness my hand and seal of office in open Court the above date.

Witness my hand and seal of office in open Court the above date.

Last Will & Testament of Thos. Ingleby dec'd.
In the name of God, Amen. - I, Thos. Ingleby of Western County and State of Georgia being in a state of infirmity, but of sound mind and memory, do make, constitute & declare this to be my last Will & Testament, and hereby revoking & making void of all others that I may have made heretofore.

First of all, I give to resign my soul into the hands of Almighty God, who gave it me, and my body to be decently buried; & after my last debts is paid, I by my last that my property both real and personal, ought be disposed of in the following manner & form.

To wit: Item 1st I will and bequeath unto my beloved son James A. Graham, the Plantation between Newbern, with the woods, lands thereunto belonging, together with the Plantation (Meadow), also the household furniture and kitchen furniture, during her natural life.

Item 2nd I will & bequeath unto my beloved son Jesse A. Ingleby, the tract of land whereon he now lives, containing one hundred and Ninety Acres; The above land already delivered to him by gift, and joining Joshua Bradford and others. Item worth four dollars and fifty cents per acre, the same I bequeath, at thirty three dollars, per acre, & bequeathing ten dollars per acre and two cents per acre, per acre, three dollars, which is the article already delivered to him.

Item 3rd I will and bequeath to my beloved son Morris A. Ingleby, the tract of land joining James A. Graham, and myself, containing one Hundred and thirty Acres, granted to him by my father, already delivered to him by gift to him, which land I deem worth four dollars and fifty cents per acre, one of my beloved son & his wife, worth eight dollars, and the other two dollars, which is already delivered.

Item 4th I will and bequeath to my beloved daughter, Mary Reddick, during her natural life, ten acres of land, granted to Thomas Ingleby, my father, it being a part of my four hundred acre tract, and I bequeath the lands I gave to my two sons Jesse A. Morris, and if not forty acres that bequeath to be made up out of a fifty three acre tract that joins the land on the west side, which I deem worth four dollars and fifty cents per acre, one of my son, that I deem worth forty five dollars, and other articles & money bequeath to the amount of twenty dollars, the same and other articles is given up, and the lands provided my daughter, Mary Reddick, should have lawful issue of her body, I will that the same have the same estate equally divided among them. If there should be no issue living at her death, the life estate to become a part of my estate, and be equally divided between my lawful heirs.

Item 5th I will and bequeath to my son, my daughter, that is, that fifty three acre tract mentioned in the 1st Item, and if there is more than fifty three acres, out of a line from Jesse Ingleby's corner, to the corner of the fifty three acre tract on the branch, and giving my son Jesse and Morris, I will that he and she be divided to the fifty three acre tract for them, the said Mary Reddick, and her heirs, I will that the same be divided to her and her heirs forever, one third of the same worth twenty dollars. The said Mary Reddick, I will that she have one hundred and thirty Acres, the balance of my four hundred acre tract, bequeath to the last wife, Joshua Bradford and myself, to be divided, and my youngest son, William Reddick, worth eight dollars, I will that he have the same worth thirty dollars, and the land I deem worth $2.50 per acre.

Item 6th I will and bequeath to my beloved son, Jesse A. Ingleby, that tract of land formerly belonging to me, Morris, adjoining with Joshua Bradford, containing eighty one acres more or less, worth four dollars per acre, whereby one of my son, Jesse did live my son, four years before he was twenty one years of age. I will that he have fifty dollars to be paid from my neighborhood share of my estate, when a final division for every year that he may remain out of the money if my business until the four years are out, and when he is paid, to my dearest calculation of the fifty dollars, ought to be deducted from his share of my estate.

Item 7th I will and bequeath to my beloved son, William Reddick, one tract of land

Adjourns Benjamin Harrison and Jacob Henson granted to Thomas a copy of a bond of a newly born child that fell to me by my father estate that is to me, all of the newly born were that fell to the son the youngest of William Bracken that ten acres excepted in the 6th Nov. I desire worth five dollars for more. I also have two others in fact. It is my own choice of them, freely. The ten acres of them worth $5,000 for more.

3rd I do it and bequeath to my two sons Henry & Abel Angley. Two shares & more of the shares I now live in, to be paid off on the 1st of January, 1822 and then Angley to be equally divided between them.
I desire at five dollars and fifty cents for more. To be divided after their death. 10th I will not bequeath to my two daughters Lydia & Rebecca Angley the balance of the share I now live in, to be equally divided between them after their Mother's death.

11th It is my will that after the death of my wife, the Estate then left to be equally divided among my lawful heirs according to valuation of a sworn attorney according to law.

Lastly, I do abhornt a idea. Angley and Henry Wilson Executors of this my last will and Testament. I desire nothing all other to my wholwits which I may have made heretofore. And desire this to be my last will and Testament.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand & affixed my seal, this eleventh day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred & twenty two.

In presence of
John Angley	Robert
William Harrison	Georgia
	Marion County	Court of January, May
		Given, 1822
Personally appeared in open Court James Angley, John Angley and William Harrison, the witnesses named of the within Will, who duly sworn, depose and say that that they saw the within named Abel Angley, sign seal and pronounce the within instrument of writing as his last will and Testament, and that at the time of his doing, he was in those opinions of sound & disposing mind and memory, and that on his personal view at any time, and in the presence of each other, that they all became in the presence of each other.
Sworn to and subscribed in open Court, this 6 th day of May 1822
Attest
J. Torrance Clerk

James Angley
John Angley
William Harrison