I, ~~John~~ ^{John} ~~Quark~~ ^{Quark} of the State of Georgia and county of Warren being sick in body out of sound disposing mind and memory and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last will and testament, and first and principally of all, I give my soul into the hands of Almighty God that gave it, and my body I commend to the earth, to be buried in decent Christian burial - and touching such worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me with in this life, I give and bequeath in the following manner and form - to wit, Item first, my will and desire is that all my just debts be paid, to be raised and made out of my estate -

Item Second, I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Nancy Quark, during her natural life, my land and plantation, whereon I now reside, and also one horse, and the stock and plantation tools and household and kitchen furniture, except as herein after excepted -

Item third I give and bequeath to my son Thomas Quark, one horse now in his possession.

Item fourth, I give and bequeath to my son Jackson Quark, one horse now in his possession.

Item fifth, I give and bequeath to my four daughters, that are now living with me, to wit, Elizabeth, Patsy, Jimmy and Amanda, one bed and furniture, and cow and calf each, to be by them freely & fully possessed as they may or leave their mother -

Item sixth, at the death of my wife, my will and desire is, that my land and plantation be equally divided between my two sons, Thomas Quark and Jackson Quark.

Item seventh, after the decease of my wife, my will is that my three daughters, to wit, Sally Morgan, Polly Enman and Litty Magraw, have Ten dollars each to be raised and made out of my estate -

Item eighth, after the decease of my wife, my will and desire is, that whatever may be remaining on hand not otherwise bequeathed in this my last will and testament, either in stock of horses, cattle, hogs, household and kitchen furniture, plantation tools, &c. - together with a tract of land in the Cherokee purchase be sold and the proceeds to be equally divided between my four daughters, to wit, Elizabeth Quark, Patsy Quark, Jimmy Quark, and Amanda Quark.

Item Ninth, I nominate and appoint Elisha Burson, Executor to this my last will and testament, fully ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my last will and testament, and I do hereby revoke and disannul any and all former wills and testaments that may have heretofore been made by me, -

In testimony whereof I have herunto set my hand and
