

The Last Will & Testament of Francis Beall Esq: dec'd.

In the name of God. I, Francis Beall of the State of Georgia and County of Warren, being very sick & weak in body of sound mind and memory (thanks be to Almighty God) calling to mind the Mortality of my body, & knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament that is to say, Principally & first of all, I give & recommend my Soul unto the hand of Almighty God that gave it, and my body I recommend to the earth to be buried in decent Christian burial, at the discretion of my executors, nothing doubting but at the general resurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God. And as touching such worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me with in this life, I give, devise, & dispose of the same in the following manner and form, To wit, I give and bequeath to my beloved wife, Elizabeth Beall all my Estate both Real and Personal during her Natural life or Widowhood, and for her to dispose of and equally divide among all her children as they may come to mature age, as she shall see cause, taking especial care to support and school them, and pay all my just debts. And I hereby do appoint my said beloved wife, Elizabeth Beall my sole Executrix in this above my last Will and Testament, Power reserving all power to be made. In Witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and Seal, this fourteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and twenty two.

Georgia: F. Beall
Warren County, Francis Beall of said State and County, having made his Will, this 14th day of this instant, and he the said Francis Beall since the above date of the said Will did not tell me that he forgot the last of his father's estate, that was coming to him, & never mentioned it in the will, therefore he requested me to have his said part of of the said estate added to, and become a part of the said Will, to be at the disposal of his wife, according to the direction of his Will.

I do hereby certify that the above attested last part of the above mentioned Francis Beall's Will is correct as above stated.

Witness this 23rd day of February 1822.

First of all, I agree to resign my Soul into the hands of Almighty God, who gave it me, and my Body to be decently buried, & after my last Will is paid, it is my will that my property both real and personal, shall be divided in the following manner to wit:
To wit: Item 1st. I will and bequeath unto my beloved wife, Audie Angley, the Plantation whereon I now live, with the woods & land thereunto belonging, together with the Plantation lately lately, Thompson's plantation and kitchen furniture, during her natural life.

Item 2nd. I will & bequeath unto my beloved son Jesse Angley, the Tract of Land whereon he now lives, containing one hundred and thirteen Acres; The above land already delivered to him of gift; and joining James Sanford and others, I allow unto him four dollars and fifty cents per acre, the same & saddle, at sixty three dollars, for thing & bedding, ten dollars, one cow & yearling ten dollars, one hen and two hens, two dollars, one pig, three dollars, which is the article already delivered to him.

Item 3rd. I will and bequeath to my beloved son Morris Angley, a Tract of Land joining James Carter, and myself, containing one
