

George A. Warren
Harris County, In the Name of God, Amen

I Markert Pate of the State and County aforesaid, being weak of body and of sound and disposing mind and memory (thanks be to God for the same) do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament In God I commend my soul, who gave it, and my body to the earth in decent burial, nothing doubting I will in the last day be raised immortal. I leave to my beloved wife Charlotte Pate, for the entire control, possession and use of the tract of land whereon I now live, containing two hundred and forty five acres more or less with all and singular the improvements thereon, to have and enjoy during her life with one bed, Bedstead & furniture.

Third, I give and bequeath to my daughter Cella Raynor Pate, Bedstead and furniture, to have and to hold forever, and which she already has in possession.

Fourth, I give, will and bequeath to my daughter Elizabeth Broom, one Bed, Bedstead & furniture, to have and to hold forever, and which she already has in possession.

Fifth, I give, will and bequeath to my son David Pate, one Bed, Bedstead & furniture, to have and to hold forever.

Sixth, I give, will & bequeath to my son Edmund Pate, one Bed, Bedstead & furniture, to have & to hold forever.

Seventh, I give, will & bequeath to my son George Pate, one one good bed, bedstead & furniture, (or Twenty five dollars, if no bed &c is on hand) to have and to hold forever.

Eighth, I give, will and bequeath to my daughter Nancy Pate, one Bed, Bedstead & furniture, or Twenty five dollars, if no bed &c is on hand; to have and to hold forever.

Ninth, I give, will and bequeath to my said beloved wife Charlotte, three cows & bullock, one cow & pig, to have & to hold forever.

Tenth, I give, will & bequeath to my three sons David, Edmund & George A. Pate, all my Tools, used in the Carpenters trade, Coopers Trade, & other Trades, for the Mutual interest & benefit of each of them; and to be at all times accessible by either, but to remain generally in the hands of possession of my son David,

(78)
 as a kind of hospital.
 Eleventh. I bequeath my wife Charlotte keep in her possession for the use and benefit of all the family which may seem to remain within her house, a gray's horse, all my Plate Silver, and a stock of provisions.

Twelfth. I give my son David at the death of my wife Charlotte, choice of the two houses aforesaid.
 Thirteenth. I give and bequeath to my three sons aforesaid, the land of land above mentioned (at the death of my wife) to be and remain in their possession forever, share & share alike, with all and singular the improvements thereto belonging.
 I give to my daughter Sarah her dower, and nothing else.
 Fourteenth. I give to my wife Charlotte all the balance of my Estate, whether of goods or Chattels, Right, Credit, lands or Tenements, of what Name or nature: to be and remain in her possession and service during her natural life, and at her death to be divided and the proceeds equally divided among all my children, share & share alike, and a like disposition to be made of all my estate, herein before mentioned, unless specially otherwise appropriated.

Fifteenth. I Name, make and appoint David (Pate), Esq. and of Thomas Gibson Executors to this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all other Wills by me made.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand & seal in presence of three witnesses, who I have requested to sign the same in that capacity, this 10th day of March 1822.

Leving Jackson }
 Henry Jackson }
 John M. Jackson }
 Probate
 Court of Ordinary, May Term, 1822

Henry Jackson, Henry Jackson & John M. Jackson, the undersigned to the within Will, and being duly sworn, depose and say that they are Charles Pate, Esq., and that they are the within instrument of writing, to be his last Will and Testament, and that at the time of his so doing, he was (in their opinion) of sound and disposing mind and memory, and that in his presence, and at his request, they all became witnesses thereunto, and subscribed in open Court, this 10th day of March 1822.
 Henry Jackson
 Thomas Jackson
 John M. Jackson

disposing mind and memory; and that in his presence, and at his request, they all became witnesses
 thereunto, and subscribed in open Court, this 10th day of March 1822.
 Henry Jackson
 Thomas Jackson
 John M. Jackson

The Last Will & Testament of Robert Beall, deceased.

(78) In the name of God, Amen.
 I Robert Beall of the County of St. Charles, aforesaid, being weak in body, but of sound Mind & Memory (Thanky is owingly for the same) do make & publish this my last Will & Testament.
 First. To God I bequeath & commend my soul, who gave it, and my Body to the earth, in decent burial, nothing doubting it will in the last day be raised an immortal being, and be reunited with my soul.
 Second. I desire that all my just debts be paid, out of the Money I have hereunto. Third. I give, bequeath and appoint to my beloved Wife, Rachel Beall, during her life time, or so long as she shall live, the Tract of land above-mentioned, containing Two hundred, sixty seven & a half Acres of more or less, adjoining the lands of Elijah Gary, Sophomah Tucker and others, on the waters of Long Creek, with the improvements, and all the tenements thereunto belonging, with the Negroes, to wit: Sally a Woman, Nancy, a Mulatto woman, about forty three years of age, Otter a Man, David a Black Woman, about Twenty six years of age, Otter a Man, Ed June a Woman, all my Stock, consisting of Twenty five head of Black Horses, one light & black, about fifty or fifty five, Hogs Hens, furniture of all kinds, Beds, Bedsteads, White Iron, Black Iron, Crockery &c. &c. All her Furniture, Plantation tools, and all the farming on hand at the time of my death, Provided the children may all remain with her, free from charge, until they marry, and the Money in hand, and debt due me.
 Sixth. I give, bequeath and appoint to my Wife, Rachel, with the right of the children (which my daughter Otter, had only have, if my death be lawful and if not, then to the three already named) I give, and had bequeath four Negroes, Mariah, a woman, about thirteen years of age, Alfred a Boy, about thirteen years of age, Susan, a Girl, about three years of age, and Abby, a Girl, about two years of age, of which one Abby is the possession of Elijah Neal; with Three hundred and twenty five dollars, with one half part of all the estate herein left to my wife at her death, provided all the bequest or legacy herein made

Warren Co. GA Wills 1810-1820
 www.georgiapioneers.com