In the name of God Amen I John [illegible] of the County of Warren and State of Georgia being indisposed in body but of perfect mind & Memory & knowing that it is appointed once for man to die, do this first day of March make and ordain this my last will and Testament that is to say: First I give and recommend my soul unto the hands of Almighty God who gave it me and as touching such worldly goods wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me with in this world I give and dispose of the same in the following manner, first I will my just debts to be paid. Second my will is to be buried in a decent manner. The Children to be maintained schooled & at age as my Executors deems it necessary. Lastly as to the disposition of my property, it is my request that they my said Executors do cause an equal division to be made, by sale or otherwise of my Estate, both real and personal, between my beloved wife Margaret Shine and my children, Viz. William Shine, John Shine, James Shine, Mary Shine, Isabell Shine, Thomas Shine, Polly Shine, Mariah Shine & Rebecca Shine my beloved Children & heirs. My Executors are hereby fully authorized and empowered to sell & dispose of so much of my Estate as may be necessary for discharging my debts or any part of my personal property as they may think proper for discharging my debts or their shares belonging to my children. And lastly I do hereby revoke & make void & of no effect all & every other will & wills by me heretofore made. In testimony whereof I William Graham & William Shine my true and lawful Executors & in testimony whereof the said John Shine have hereunto set his hand and seal this 1st day of March 1814.
