younger. In the Name of God. I now, I put down off the County of Mercer & take a formal calling to mind the mortality of life and the coming had I supposed in all men even to die. So much so that my mortal affliction has now been suffering and troubled. First of all, you and I are now moved into the earth, I thought the like good end my body I surrendered to the earth, and about the buried at the direction of my husband nothing doubting but that it will be raised again at the general Resurrection by the mighty power of God.
And as by the worldly goods where with I have, please God to bless me I have paid you and disposed of them in the manner as you following of this of my will and desire is that all my debts shall be paid Secondly I send unto you my beloved wife the Darling bone and her Letter wherein I have told you all and singular the sum of my effects as thorough belonging or appertaining, during her widowhood so much as she has that she is of the age. There was one pen which says I give and leave with seals engraven to the station the said tract of land of no man to him her son and of your forever.
Thirdly I send unto my beloved wife a box containing my best jubilee, herb, dinner, tea, Thrush, a Tyrope, bags, Sabathas, towels, Sare, Washington, Sally, Darrin & I left together with the house & kitchen furniture & the rest of all things else I distinctly note, during her widowhood as a present she going to my way, widow, money and all else as they are in at and our home each, entitled to you forever, and while the present as the state of our children have already descended at her discretion so that you and yourself unto my beloved daughter. I am. Sonorous days here by the name of Harmark together with the other family who has already in relation to her and her heirs and it right should be there. Here and overall unto my beloved son Thomas, James, Mrs John, in land in this County which he bought of Blodderwood.
