I give them back to the State Library and a lot of books which are very good and worth a look, but if perfect would not money be given out to bad, calling unto mind the worthiness of my wife, and knowing that it is often bad for all men once to die, to make bad or bad books my last will and testament. That is to say, principally and in part.

first of all, I give and recommend my soul into the hand of thy
- by God that gave it and our body. I recommend to the Earth to be buried in decent Christian埋葬 in the cemetery of my ancestors, nothing doubting but at the general re-creation, I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God. - And acknowledging such worthy estate wherewithal it has pleased God to bless me in this life, I give, command and desire of the same, in the following manner and form. - First, I give and bequeath to my dearly beloved wife Anne the Land and Plantation whereroon I now live, together with my Chattel, Harry horse and little working Tools house and Kitchen furniture, during her natural life and widow-hood, with full power to sell and dispose of parts of the same & the like, with sufficient security may think best provided you begin earnest money, how and on what day it may be paid back, and take no hindrance in making sale during her
- 1829. life or death, the same in which I now live, together with all the Chattel thereunto appertaining, in the mouth of Dickins County and located in as near vicinity to my dwelling house being the house whereon Nancy and John reside now a widow. - Also my several two hundred dollars Dowry say thousand four hundred dollars, she has to and get you up to her, being a natural and new thing. - Secondly in the second place, I would request, that if Nancy or any of my children should die before me, when carrying of me, I might be made equal with the rest of my children, which will be one half of my world children I should still have an equal looking wife, both real and personal, counting into the three first, I am already inde. And I do hereby distribute and appoint my worldly estate with executors, and my will to be done, out of this my will well and Testament, to be fully done of, I have written, with my hand and seal this 27th Decem ber, 1829. - Israel, I called Published, Pronounced and desire to make Jonathan Lockett my last Will and Testament for my business and in the presence

Whereas I recently appeared before the Trust and Testament and, having been and being duly sworn on the 1st day of August 1811, did then and there make and publish my final Will and Testament, reciting all and mentioning my last Will and Testament of the year 1807, and that this was the most material alteration, reciting all and mentioning the same, and at the time of publishing the same I said my ultimo month and signature to the best of their knowledge no testify being then in existence, and in the presence of John and Andrew Wirt, witnesses, who doth now sign and subscribe to a copy of the same to be 1811. In witness whereof I have signed John Wirt,
