

32) In the Name of God. Amen. I Joseph Pray don't & (son) of that State and County aforesaid, being in full memory of my God and my own mind laid memory, well knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make & declare this my last Will and Testament: First & Principally my Deeds & becomend to the earth, to be buried in a decent manner, at the discretion of my exors hereafter named, & my last I recommend to Almighty God, that gave it, nothing doubting at the general resurrection to receive the same again by the mighty power of God. And as touching such worldly estate which it hath pleased God to bestow upon me in this life, I desire & dispose of in the following manner to wit: Item - I give to my beloved wife Anna Pray, the loved & loved I have lived on, with all my stock of all kind also all my Plantation Lands, household and kitchen furniture, &c. during her natural life, and at her death to be equally divided betwixt all my children.

Item - I give to my son and son Hezekiah Pray, one loved & truly, all my money to him and his heirs forever.

Item - I give to my Daughter Mary Pray, one Bed, to be given her by my wife to have and her heirs forever.

My mind wish and desire for my wife to have the Negroes which are the land, and any of the stock she may take & have, after paying my good debts, to be divided among my wife, & my beloved & my wife to have and her heirs forever. I do constitute and appoint my son & daughter Pray and my beloved & my wife to be my last Will and Testament, & I do revoke & annul all other Wills & Testaments, and also revoking & annul all other former Wills & Testaments made by me made - On the 25th day of August 1810.

Signed, sealed, and declared to be the last Will of Joseph Pray, in the presence of Joseph Pray, son of the said Joseph Pray, in the presence of Georgia Warren County, Court of Ordinary Stephen H. Davenport, & November Term, 1811. Jonathan Pray, son of the said Joseph Pray, in the presence of the said Stephen H. Davenport, one of the Justices of the Peace, to the within Will, who being duly sworn as the law directs, doth forth and doth that he sees the within named Joseph Pray sign, seal, publish and declare the within instrument of writing to be his last Will and Testament, and that at the time of his so doing, he was (in his opinion) of sound disposing mind and memory, and at the same time he saw Stephen Pray sign the same, & the other subscribing witnesses, and in his presence and at his request, and in the presence of each other, they both became witnesses thereto. Stephen Pray, & sworn in open Court, this 25th day of November 1811. Just. H. Davenport.

In the Name of God Amen. I Mark Hardon of the State of Georgia and County of Warren, being weak and infirm in body, yet of sound mind and memory, do make, ordain and constitute this to be my last Will and Testament:

Firstly - I give my will and desire that my last shall be paid as early as arrangements can conveniently be made for that purpose & lastly - I give and bequeath unto my son William Hardon, the sum of two dollars, to be paid him by my Executors, within twelve months after or after my decease.

Secondly - I give and bequeath unto my son Mark Hardon the sum of two dollars, to be paid them by my Executors, within twelve months after or after my decease.

Thirdly - I give and bequeath unto my son Martin Hardon, the sum of two dollars, to be paid him by my Executors, within twelve months after or after my decease.

Fourthly - I give and bequeath unto my son James Hardon, the sum of two dollars, to be paid him by my Executors, twelve months after or after my decease.

Fifthly - I give and bequeath unto my son John Hardon, the sum of two dollars, to be paid him by my Executors, within twelve months after or after my decease.

Sixthly - I give and bequeath unto my daughter Pella George, the sum of two dollars, to be paid her by my Executors, within twelve months after or after my decease.

Seventhly - I give and bequeath unto my daughter Pella George, the sum of two dollars, to be paid her by my Executors, within twelve months after or after my decease. And the rest of my property both real & personal, then remaining, I give and bequeath unto my beloved & my two daughters, Pella Hardon and Mary Hardon, and my son William Hardon, to be used by them as common, as necessity or convenience may require, until the death or intermarriage of any said life tenant - And it is my Will and desire, that the
