and my Body to be buried in a Christian decent burial, nothing doubting but that I shall receive the same again at the general Resurrection.— And acknowledging my worldly state wherein it pleased God to bless me with in this life, I give & bequeath the following manner and form, by this my last will & Testament unto my beloved wife Frances Beattie, living her natural life at the Montgomery where I now live, and also for her negroes, Jacob, Sally, Harry & Anna, and all the Master's and their profits arising of said plantation, and all household furniture; and at her death the above property to be equal divided among my surviving children and their lawful progeny, etc.

Secondly, it is most difficult to get all the rest of you together, the idea of getting all the boys, & so easily divided many in various directions, & scattered far & widely, seems to add to the difficulty, & every source and effort I have made has been to no avail.

1829. Do much as you desire and have not, in doing other things, incurred any expense. I am now otherwise highly engaged and cannot go to see you, but will do so following this meeting.
1829. Your affectionate & obedient son, John H. Chase.
