Robert Fleming of the county and state aforesaid considering the shortness of life and certainty of death and being of sound mind and of disposing memory do make ordain and publish this as my last and only will and testament - in manner and form as follows -

Item first - I give and bequeath after death - my spirit unto him who gave it, and my body to the grave in decent burial -

Item 2<sup>d</sup> - I give and bequeath unto my wife Cynthia Fleming - all that tract and parcel of land, lying upon the waters of Williams Creek, containing five hundred acres more or less - now known as my plantation adjoining lands of Lockett - Culpper and others - to have and to hold in her right - until my son Arthur shall arrive at the age of twenty one years of age - and at which time said tract of land together with all other real and personal estate - herein after granted and bequeathed - shall be equally distributed between my wife, Cynthia - and my son Arthur - and in case that my wife Cynthia shall die before my son Arthur - then all property, real and personal, herein bequeathed, shall descend to my son Arthur - to have and to hold to himself and heirs forever in fee simple, but if my son Arthur die before my wife Cynthia - either before or after he shall have arrived at the age of twenty one - then all property real and personal herein conveyed - shall vest in my wife Cynthia forever in fee simple.

Item 3<sup>d</sup> - I give and bequeath unto my wife Cynthia the following negroes to wit - Prid, Charles, Eben, George, Murrellen, Phoeby, Abba, Tom, Louisa, Austin, Peter, Thars, subject to the contingencies expressed in the second item of this my last will and testament.

Item 4th - I hereby appoint and constitute my wife Cynthia Fleming, as sole executrix of this my last will and Testament - and thereby give her authority to dispose of the free negroes heretofore bound to me, as she may think proper - and I can then give her authority to dispose of my interest in the house and lot in the town of Uniontown commonly known as the Eagle Tavern - as she may think proper -

Item 5th - All other property not heretofore bequeathed in this will - both real and personal - to wit - horses, cattle, hogs - household and kitchen furniture - and all effects - chattels and inter ests - whatsoever - now belonging to me, I bequeath unto my wife Cynthia - subject to the contingencies before mentioned in the second item of this will.

In witnesses whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the twenty seventh day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty nine - (1839)
