Respect, as at my last death or marriage, for the remaining property to be equally divided amongst my surviving children, viz. Babbar, William, Robert, Frank and Henry.
And it is also my desire, that if any of these six youngest children should die before they come of age, that the remaining part of their and youngest child's share should be properly.

And it is also my desire, that the amount of monies I demand when collected, (which is about two hundred and seventy one dollars, to be equally divided amongst my wife and my nine children.
Said to be Henry, James and I suppose James William & Graf, Gersonings, as is custom to this, say "last will & Testament" making void all other former wills by me made. This I certify day of June, 1822.
